ad lib. Till Ready

Ev-'ry Red Cross girl-ie likes a sol-dier, There's a feel-ing in her heart a-kin to love,
Ev-'ry girl-ie loves a sol-dier lad-die, And ev-'ry girl-ie loves a boy sin-cere,

Some lad-die with a gun up-on his shoul-der,
She loves him bet-ter some-times than her dad-dy,

Ve-ry oft-en is the one she's think-ing of.
Proud of one who does-n't know the thing called fear.

Ev-'ry sold-ier lad-die has a
A sol-dier who goes in-to bat-tle yearn-ing For some no-ble girl-ie, all in white, tire-less, Does-n't mind the can-non's shot and shell,

In his heart the light of
If this mes-sage he can

The Four Big Song Hits!

You'll want them for your piano, talking machine, or player piano—why not get them now? They are sweeping the country. Everybody wants to hear them, to sing them, and to dance them. They've caught on strong.

Goodbye, Broadway, Hello France!

When you play and sing this song, you'll know why the regiments on their way to France adopted it as their own. In the language of the hour—"It's got everything." The big hit of the New York Winter Garden and positively the biggest song hit of the year. A wonderful fox-trot or one-step. By Reisner, Davis and Burkette.

Just try over the choruses printed below and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

Vaudeville performers are singing them in hundreds of cities to thousands and thousands of people who applaud vigorously, thus showing their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city as yet be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself, today.

Where Do We Go From Here?

Another song that our soldier boys are singing everywhere—and most everybody else, too. The "Tipperary" of 1917. Irvin Cobb says: "Tipperary of 1917." It started out to be a fancy song about "Paddy Mack, who drove a Ford." Then the war existed and his song struck the fancy of the soldiers. When some one says, "Where do we go from here?" you'll get his meaning. By Johnson and Wenrich.

Mother, Dixie and You

A song of Dixieland. A beautiful melody wedded to words that are sure to take you back home. And not a sad, sentimental song, either, but one that has life and spirit... Played quickly, it is an irresistible fox-trot. By Johnson and Sandy.

Other Popular "Feist" Songs

These songs are printed in the new "Feist" easy-to-read style. Complete song at a glance. No leaves to turn.

Hawaiian Butterfly.
At the "Yankee" Minstrel Ball.
China, We Owe a Lot to You. A new novelty song.
Hong Kong. The Oriental melody you've been whistling.
One Own Beloved Land. A broad rolling song of the South. Words and Music by Gus. Edwards.
If I Had a Son for Each Year in "Old Glory."
Dingy Dale.
Kitty Kennedy. Goldberg's famous character song as he sings it.
Perfect Was Right. Another of Goldberg's Cartoons on Topics.
Rockaway. Sophie Tucker's great "Jazz."
The Garden of Allah. Fashion song of Bella Fashion Fair of same name.
Mamma Discovers "Fashion Parts."
There's No Rainbow in the Wall That Grows You Water. Another "don't kiss the Hand."
I Called You "My Sweetheart." The ballad success.
I Know I Get More Than My Share.
Keep Your Eye on the Girlie You Love.
Ireland Must Be Heaven, for My Mother Came from There.
Don't Give the Hand That's Feeding You.

There's Something in the Name of Ireland That the Whole World Seems to Love

To some Ireland means home, to others it means love, to others it means a race of fighting men. But get this song and you'll get an idea why the world loves Ireland. A more beautiful melody hasn't been written in years. By Howard Johnson and Milton Ager.
